

Historic Ithaca Tour, 2021
Dennis-Newton House	421 N. Albany	1870	First black fraternity house in the US, Alpha Phi Alpha
Tibbets-Rumsey House	310 W. State	1880	Built for a locally prominent family by early Cornell Architecture graduate. Combines Eastern Stick and Queen Anne styles
State Theater	107 W. State	1915	1,600 seat theater, originally an auto garage/dealership. Converted to theater in 1928, using Moorish and Renaissance Revival Styles, along with the Collegiate Gothic symbolism.
Clinton Hall	108 N. Cayuga	1847	Greek Revival style
Clinton House	116 N.. Cayuga	1828	Greek Revival style. Originally a hotel and Ithaca's first professional office building
Boardman House	120 E. Buffalo	1866	Italianate style, named for first dean of Cornell Law School. In 1911 it was sold to IC. IC sold it in 1972.
US Post Office	213 N. Tioga	1909	Classical Revival, French Baroque style
Second Tompkins Co. Courthouse	121 E. Court	1854	Known as the Old Courthouse. Red brick with stucco, over a stone foundation, with open-timber roof and belfry.
Wing Hall	Wing Drive	1912	Classical Revival, designed by Green & Wicks
Rice Hall	Tower Road	1911	Renaissance style, rusticated brick imitating clapboards, w/ coursed brickwork above
Fernow Hall	Tower Road	1915	Colonial Revival style designed by Green & Wicks
Caldwell Hall	Reservoir Road	1914	Renaissance style, designed by Green & Wicks
Bailey Hall	Garden Ave & Reservoir	1912	Greek Revival designed by Edward Green, named after first dean of CALS, seats 1324
A.D. White House	27 E Ave	1871	Gothic style, designed by William Henry Miller, for first president of Cornell.
Morrill Hall	Arts Quad, west side	1868	Ithaca Bluestone, $70,111 original cost, Second Empire and Italian Renaissance style
Telluride House	217 West Ave.	1910	Residence Hall of select Cornellians like Linus Pauling. Arts and Crafts style.
Deke House	13 South	1893	Romanesque style, designed by William Henry Miller, frat house, two trees in front planted by Teddy Roosevelt
Llenroc	100 Cornell Ave.	1865	Ezra Cornell's house, Gothic Revival style, Llenroc limestone, now a frat house